Pat Donohue To Organize And Coach Baseball Team Here

BOSTON STAR TO OPPOSE REACH CLUB

Pat Donohue of Boston is to come here about next Christmas to get together, coach, and play with an All-Hawaii baseball team, which will be expected to go up against the Reach All-American bunch when they come here next February. This information is contained in a letter from Jess Woods, which reads, in part, as follows:

"Bulletin, Honolulu.

"Boys:—Just a little dope on the Reach All-American baseball club that is to play in Honolulu during the winter. We have organized a club that will be a tower of strength and as good a club as is playing ball in America today. Eight out of the twelve men that we will carry are from the American and National Leagues.

"There have been some changes in the previous line-up. Hal Chase, who was to have gone, has been blacklisted by the National Commission for deserting New York, so cannot play with our club. Overall cannot come, for various reasons.

"In the places of these two we have signed up Buck Freeman, Philadelphia first baseman, and Pat Flaherty, pitcher of the Boston Nationals. Here are two players to be proud of.

"Cobb of Detroit will be with us. He is leading the American League in batting. Delehanty, who is next to Cobb in the batting list of the American League, will be on second. He is a great player.

"Our team will be: Cobb, Detroit;

Flaherty, Boston; Sweeney, Boston; Burns, Washington; Delehanty, Washington; Freeman, Philadelphia; Biles, St. Louis; Nealon, Pittsburgh; and Devereaux, Hildebrand, Johnson, and McArdle of the Pacific Coast League.

"Baggerly will come as press agent and Mike Fisher as manager.

"I have just had a letter from Pat Donohue of Boston. The idea is to have Pat go to Honolulu and take charge of the Honolulu club about Christmas time; he could organize, coach, and play with the boys.

"By the time the Reach club returns to Honolulu he would have them in great shape and some real class A baseball could be seen. This is what the Honolulu public wants, and you can take my word for it that they will turn out strong to see the best in the world.

"Want to give you just a line about our uniforms, which we think will make a hit. The caps will be white with an American flag on the front. The shirts will be white with 'Reach All-Americans' across the chest in blue, and an American shield on the left arm with an eagle above it. The pants will be white; the socks white, with red and blue stripes and the coats a bright red with blue collars and big, white pearl buttons. Each man will have his individual black hat bag with his name blazoned on it in gold letters.

"Can you beat this?

"This series of games will be a success, you can say for me."

SPORTS JOURNEY FAR TO SEE LEAHY AT WORK

Joe Leahy worked out before a large audience of sports who had made the pilgrimage to his shrine at the Healan boat house yesterday afternoon. He went through some fast boxing with Young Nelson and Tommy Lane, the clever Australian, and skipped the rope, fought the shadows, yanked the weight machine, and otherwise worked at a rate which compelled the admiration of the multitude.

Leahy is a very clever boxer, with a steady head and a great judgment of distance. Reilly himself willingly admits that he has a very worthy opponent in Joe, and whispers that he will have to keep at the very top notch of condition when going in the ring with this boy.

It is mentioned that some fans profess to see championship material in Reilly. It may be mentioned also that among these is Dr. Roller, who admired Reilly's footwork excessively, and stated often that Reilly is a boy with a great deal of real, first-rate ability.

The men are to meet next Saturday evening, and as the time grows short it becomes apparent that both will enter the ring in excellent shape. The next two or three days will be devoted to the same sort of work, when the men will probably ease up, and take Saturday as a rest day. Both will easily make 131 at 5 p. m., it appears.

LURLINES WIN OUT

The Young Lurlines defeated the Young Pauas in a game of baseball by a score of 4 to 3 last Sunday. The winners have played three games without a reverse, on the strength of which showing they are willing to play any team of their "size," which is out to accept challenges in Honolulu. The members of the winning team are: G. Rosa, c; J. Rowe, p; J. Martin, 1b; W. Red, 2b; W. Wond, 3b; F. Wond, ss; R. Kahn, cf; A. Martin, rf; Willie, lf.

Several prominent book makers, among them George Rose of California, were warned away from Aqueduct track as a concession to the civil authorities.

Management of the New York nationals refused a $50,000 offer from Chicago for Pitcher Mathewson.

CONVICTS ARE SLOW: KAHINI PARK SUFFERS

Pilkia, full-fledged and life-sized, stares the Kahlia A. C. in the face. It is all over the ball park this club is putting in order, and which is being completed so slowly that the support of the community is being lost and a large number of members are leaving the club. In fact, the slowness of the work is causing the very organization backing it to disintegrate.

The ball park was started a long time ago. Residents in the community subscribed funds for piping and other items when the park should be complete. These people are now going back on the members of the club. They are inclined to think that they were handed something of a gold brick, as the park is not being completed at a rate which suggests any intention of completion.

Besides this, twenty-five members of the club have recently resigned.

All of this trouble is caused by a misunderstanding over this work. Members of the club were given to understand that convicts would be used to finish this work, but the "cons" are not being employed there enough to get results. They are employed somewhat, it is true, but they are soon moved away to Manoa, and the park languishes. Considering the promise to have the work at this park done, it is thought very hard lines by some of the more devoted of the club's members that things are allowed to go loose at the ends. In fact, they do not hesitate to roast the whole proposition strongly.

KANEONES WIN IN GAME WITH WAITAU AT HEELA

The Kaneone and Waitau baseball teams crossed bats last Sunday afternoon at Heela grounds, the game resulting in a score of 4 to 2 in favor of the Kaneone aggregation.

The line-up of the two teams was: Kaneone—John L. Silva, c; J. Bright, p; B. Bright, 1b; Henry D. K. Domingo (capt.), 2b; R. Kamaunu, ss; John Lopez, 3b; Kamaunu, lf; Ah Fat, cf; M. Lopez, rf.

Waitau—W. Hookano, c; L. Hookano, p; Kahao, 1b; W. Watson, 2b; Kaapuni, ss; J. Watson, 3b; Puoa, lf; Sam, cf; David, rf.

The score by innings:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Kaneone 0 1 1 0 0 0 1 —4
Waitau 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 —2

Umpire, Willie Rowan.

Battling Nelson, lightweight champion of world, received an ovation at Chicago.

Jess Woods To Promote Fights For Roller At Seattle

Dr. Roller, the wrestler, is about to break into the pugilistic game and challenge all of the heavyweights. Roller is taking the rest cure in Honolulu, but he will start for this city soon for the purpose of defying Tommy Burns, Jack Johnson, Al Kaufman or any one else willing to take a chance against him.

Roller unfolded his plans to Jess Woods while the latter was in Honolulu recently. Roller said that he had cleaned up all the wrestlers in sight and that the only way for him to get some coin was to branch out as a boxer. He believes that he has class enough to go against any of them.

Roller is a giant, standing six feet three inches in height and weighing about 220 pounds. As a wrestler he defeated every man in his class. He challenged George Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, but the latter turned down the offer and Roller's friends said that the foreigner was afraid of him.

Roller is a graduate of a big eastern university and a medical man by profession. He went in for athletics and proved to be a star at every game he took up. He is a young man, under 30 years of age, and has made a study of physical development. Roller knows a great deal about the boxing game, but how he will stack up as a real fighter remains to be seen.

Woods says that he will break into the boxing game at Seattle during the winter. According to his statement,

Pullets and Salmon

The Alameda brought them to us and they are fine, fat, tender, and juicy. Put these on any Honolulu table tomorrow and you could entertain a king. Order Today.

the authorities will permit limited round boxing contests if they are properly conducted, and with this end in view Woods has secured an option on a big pavilion in the Siwash city, where he intends to promote his fights within a couple of months.

As a ring warmer Woods may put on Roller with some likely looking northwestern heavyweight. He believes that Roller would be a big card in Seattle, where he made good as a wrestler.

If the fighting game in Seattle pans out well, the northern city will blossom out as a competitor of San Francisco whenever there are good cards in sight.—S. F. Call.
